"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overtake it."

— John 1:5 (NRSVue)

Siblings in Christ,

Grace and peace to you in this beautiful Advent season.

Christmas and Advent remain some of my very favorite times of the year. There is a warmth and a quiet joy that settle over these weeks of preparation, and at the same time there is a bubbling excitement that grows as we draw nearer to the celebration of Christ's birth. We watch as the candles on the Advent wreath grow brighter each Sunday. We listen for the promises of hope and peace. We open our hearts to the coming of Christ who meets us with grace right where we are. Advent invites us to slow down, to breathe deeply, and to remember that God is faithfully at work even when the world feels hurried or uncertain.

One of the true gifts of Advent is that it teaches us how to wait. Not the restless kind of waiting that we experience in daily life, but a hopeful and expectant waiting that trusts God's timing. The early Christians saw Advent as both a remembrance and a promise. It points us back to Bethlehem, where God entered the world in the humility of a manger. But it also points us forward to the day when Christ will come again to renew all things. This means our waiting is not passive. It is a practice of faith. It is learning to look for signs of God's presence, to name the blessings around us, and to believe that God is moving even when we cannot see the whole picture. Advent shapes us into a people who hold onto hope with confidence and courage.

I am grateful for how this congregation reflects that light in so many ways. Your encouragement, your generosity, your willingness to serve, and your love for one another kindle the hope of Advent for our whole community. Every time we gather for worship, every time a child lights an Advent candle, every time we reach out to a neighbor in need, we participate in God's ongoing story of love breaking into the world. There is a joy here that feels alive and growing, and it is a blessing to witness.

As we draw near to Christmas, I want to warmly invite you and your loved ones to our Christmas Eve services at 4:00pm and 6:00pm. These gatherings are filled with joy and expectation as we sing beloved carols, hear the story of Jesus' birth, and share in the peaceful glow of candlelight. There is something extraordinary about that moment when the sanctuary fills with soft lights and voices carried by hope. It is one of the most beautiful experiences of our life together, and I look forward to celebrating it with you.

May this Advent strengthen your hope, lift your spirit, and draw you closer to the heart of God. And may the joy of Christ fill your homes and your hearts as Christmas approaches.

Peace,

Pastor Kyle

If you've seen the quilt displayed above the organ in the sanctuary during October and November, let's delve into its history. This quilt was crafted by a group of ladies from the surrounding communities of Gol, Norman, Kindred, and Christiana, with all their names beautifully stitched onto it. Jean Hertsgaard acquired the quilt at an auction held by Murial Evenson and generously donated it to Kindred Lutheran Church. It is hung each October and November in memory of Jean's birthday and to celebrate KLC's anniversary in November.

Secretary's Report/Approval of prior Minutes: Motion to approve amended September Minutes by Laurie, Seconded by Bryan. Motion approved.

Treasurer's Report/Approval of Report: Motion to approve Report by Sally, Seconded by Michele. Motion approved.

- The budget is balanced through August.
- Selected Pastors health benefits for next year.
- Funds came together for 2 new fridges and they will be here next week. ($1,500 for both)
- We recently paid our $6,000 benevolence to the Eastern ND synod.

Pastor's Report:

- Confirmation classes are going well and have started a new lesson series.
- One on one meetings with the 16-9th graders that are getting confirmed is almost complete.
- The fall youth retreat to Castaway Club went well. Pastor Kyle and Lanah were chaperones for the whole group. (12 from KLC, and 6 from Norman/Davenport Lutheran)
- Visitations went well this month.
- Someone from the Synod will be here for worship 11/2 for their 3 year visit. The last visit was in June 2022.
- Lanah's planning a game night for the youth sometime in November. Her chats last month were helpful to see what the kids are interested in and to get to know them better.
- New member luncheon and class will be in November.
- Paternity leave in January- we have a few people lined up to fill in for services and will continue to look for a few more.
